

Hi Romance Book Lovers!

Well, here is issue # 2 from me to you and I hope your Christmas preparations are well started, almost finished or all done. I would hold out the same hope for myself but after all these years, I know that's an "Impossible Dream".

I know the world is in a real mess right now but I hope that all people of good will can take some time this Christmas to reflect on the many blessings we have.

No matter what your faith or belief system, this is an exceptionally joyous time of year and wouldn't it be wonderful if it could become a time of fellowship and healing. We should never give up hope for that wish to come true

Sorry to hear of the death of Jim Nabors on November 30. Most of us knew him as Gomer Pyle on the Andy Griffith Show. He was a great comedic actor with an amazing singing voice. Here is an example:

Although a standalone book, this is the second in a series of stories taken from the Case files of International Investigations and Protection Services Inc. The IIPIS office receives a mysterious and anonymous phone call concerning a young girl, unconscious and badly abused lying in an abandoned warehouse.

The agency partners, Rob Henderson and Heath Barton investigate and decide to take the girl back to their premises, so they can find out what happened, before they bring the police into the situation.

When she regains consciousness they discover that she is the foster daughter of a couple who are involved in the occult. They have been torturing her in "preparation" for some sort of ritual. She also has an unusual tattoo.

Husband & Wife Christmas Shopping Frank and Dianne were in a local shopping centre just before Christmas. Dianne suddenly noticed that Frank was missing, and as they had a lot to do, she called him on his cell phone. Dianne asked, "Frank, where are you? You know that we have lots to do."

Frank said, "Do you remember the jewelry store we went into about 10 years ago, and you fell in love with a diamond necklace? I could not afford it at the time, and I said that one day I would get it for you."

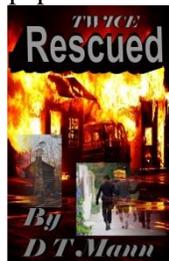

Little tears started to flow down Dianne's cheek, and she got all choked up. "Yes, I do remember that shop," she replied.

"Well, I'm in the Hooters next to that."

We have lost many great stars this year
From Jim Nabors to Fats Domino to David Cassidy, so many of our favourites have gone. It's beyond the scope of a newsletter like this to list them all but here's a link that really covers it

Something new – Twice Rescued

Available as an eBook on KOBO and as an eBook and paperback on Amazon

Cassidy Ann Roberts - is a typical headstrong 20 year old. Her parents died in an accident when she was almost 10, leaving her upbringing to her 21 year old brother, Chance.

On his death bed, their father made Chance promise to raise her as if she were his own child, but to be sure not to spoil her. Chance now 31 and a U.S. Marshall took that job very seriously and Cassie reacted like any child doing almost anything she could think of to spite him. One of her reckless actions was to become the steady girlfriend of an abusive ne'er-do-well named Kyle Philips. When Cassie, bruised and badly beaten finally decides to leave him, Kyle vows to get her back.

Action, romance, suspense - wrapped up in one great read.
